Working Papers

Forward Guidance and the Dynamics of Bank Credit

(2025)

Forward guidance contracts bank credit through a bank capital channel: contractionary signals raise leverage and force persistent credit tightening

Fiscal Theory of the Price Level with Financial Frictions and Long-Term Debt

(2025)

Bank balance sheets endogenize government-debt discount rates in a fiscal-theory model, altering inflation dynamics under fiscal dominance

Government Debt and the Transmission of Monetary Policy to Credit

(2026)

The banking system's response to monetary policy shocks is state-dependent: higher government debt dampens credit contractions following monetary tightenings
